Spectator

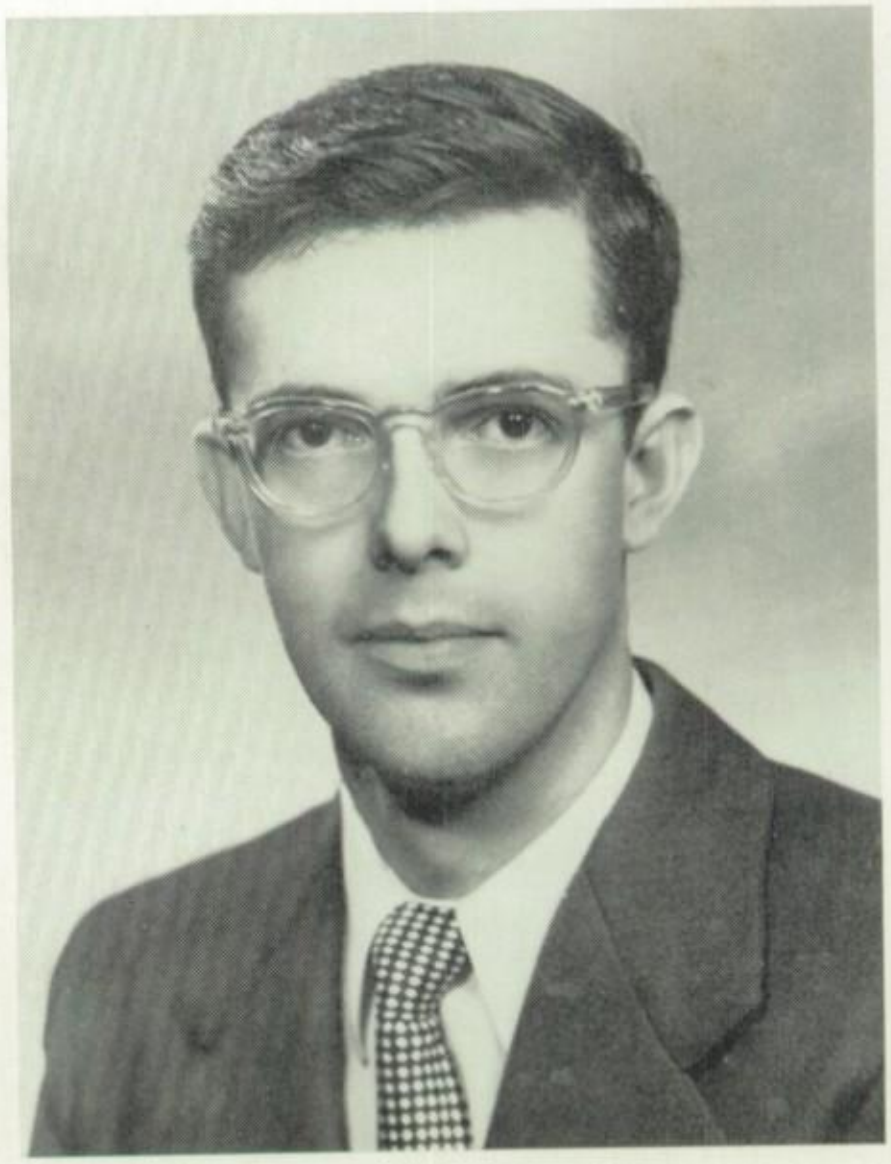
Dallastown Pennsylvania

We Thank You . . .

The class of 1957 feels that it is an extreme privilege to be able to dedicate this volume of the Spectator to Mr. Robert H. Hays.

In this way we hope to thank him for the constant efforts he has made for the students. We know that he is first, last, and always interested in the student's welfare. By his teaching, tempered with good humor and understanding, by his willingness to help whenever needed, he has always been not only a teacher, but an adviser and friend.

May this dedication express the appreciation and respect he deserves.



Robert H. Hays, B.S., M.Ed.

DALLASTOWN AREA

Fall denotes many different things to many different people; but to people between the ages of 6 and 17 fall means the beginning of school, the chance to be back with the gang again, the always exciting football game, and the customary classes. All these things represent a great deal to every student. The Spectator Staff wishes to present to you this book of moments to remember—A Year of Student Life at Dallastown High School.

"Pardon Us For Pointing

To Dallastown High's corridors filled with friendly smiles and happy talk

to its leaders among the faculty and student body

to its well working teams and hard working students.

Pardon us for pointing but we're mighty proud of Dallastown High."

Our Wildcats . . .

opened the season by defeating Newport 6-0 in a game played on Newport's rain-drenched field. Barry Keckler scored, while Barry Gohn did most of the ground gaining. The Wildcats won the first Laurel Conference game by defeating Kennard-Dale 12-6. Keckler and Gohn posted Dallastown's six-pointers. Lamont Flinchbaugh caught a Keckler pass for one touchdown and Gohn added the second, but this was not enough to outscore Red Lion 20-13. Dallastown suffered a bitter defeat at Littlestown 32-13. The Wildcats lost stellar quarterback, Barry Keckler, who fractured his right knee. Under the lights at Small's Athletic Field, the Wildcats defeated Susquehannock 13-0. Norman Seitz starred for Dallastown. The "homeless" Wildcats were defeated 27-7 by Biglerville. On a rain-swept field, West York pushed over two touchdowns in the third period to nip the Wildcats 14-7. Central Dauphin outclassed Dallastown to win a 60-6 non-conference test. Susquehannock found revenge as they defeated Dallastown 18-13, in the final game of the season. Dallastown's Wildcats ended the season with a record of 3 wins and 6 losses. However, in the Laurel League they won two and lost 3, finishing in 4th place.

The Library Club under the supervision of Miss Mary Perry helped students find the right books. Surrounded by many books and magazines, the members helped to file cards, kept the books in active circulation, and signed many library passes. The members were busiest during the activity periods and study halls.

Ninety new books—fiction, science, religion, biography, history, and the arts—were added to the library. At the beginning of the year, the members of the Library Club assisted Miss Perry with mending the old books, dusting the shelves, and placing the new books in their proper places.

The Student Council was composed of representatives from each class and homeroom. It was very active under the direction of President Carolyn Raab and Adviser Robert Hays. In addition to the president, the other officers were Sheila Gemmill, vice-president; Joyce Heindel, secretary; and Mary Klinedinst, treasurer.

Besides sponsoring the Hallowe'en Dance, the Spring Dance, and the "Sock Hops," the Student Council with the Beacon staff, co-sponsored the Winter Wonderland Dance in December. They also supervised the Christmas decorating project.

At the beginning of school, the Student Council presented a student handbook to every student. This handbook contained information concerning the school, songs, and cheers, graduation requirements, organizations, and other activities.

Winter coats and boots were the order of the evening when you braved the cold fifteenth or sixteenth of March to see "Cracked Nutts" by Jay Tobias, which Mrs. Elaine Brown directed. As the curtain rose, the troubles of two college girls, Peggy and Ginger Nutt, played by Kaye Ann Strayer and Nancy Gray, unfolded before you.

To make a little spending money, the girls decided to take in roomers while their Aunt Drue was away. Matters soon were complicated by their hypnotized housekeeper, a professor and his two nephews who were being pursued by a widow from the sunny south, Aunt Drue's money mad suitor and his mother who came to visit, and an escaped octopus. Aunt Drue returned in time, however, to untangle the situation and discover that the professor was her long lost love.

Also in the cast were: Carolyn Raab as Gussie Garfinkle; Karen Leader as Aunt Drusilla; Ralph Stahl as Professor Beamish; Eugene Smith and Eugene Hartman as the professor's nephews; Sheila Gemmill as Magnolia Longsford; Kent Sprenkle as Adelbert De Weese; Faye Krout as Mrs. De Weese; Joyce Heindel as Delicious; Charles Snyder as Confusion; Dalen Grove as the Voice.

Dallastown's Varsity Basketball team completed a season of 23 games; 18 of which were league contests. The season began with an exhibition game with York Catholic and ended in a test with Manchester to decide the league winners of the second half. Between these were many exciting contests, such as the Kennard Dale game when Dalen Grove's foul shot in the final three seconds kept championship hopes, and the Eastern thriller when Dale Gable sank two points in the second overtime. Dallastown captured second place in the York County Scholastic Basketball League with 14 wins and 4 losses.

Audrey Hoke, Jo Marie Shaer, Beverly Krouse, Linda Mitzel, Deanna Saylor.

If you attended any of the Junior High basketball games this year, you would have seen a group of cheerleaders full of vim, vigor, and vitality. This group consisted of two ninth graders, two eighth graders, and one seventh grader. They made their appearance at the first Junior High basketball game and cheered at all home and evening away games. Cheering and yelling with the D. H. S. student body, the Junior High Cheerleaders have done their best in cheering the team to victory.

Marlene Miller, a senior varsity cheerleader, gives tips to the Junior High Cheerleaders.

Dallastown

Under the capable direction of Mr. Joseph Campanella and student director Eugene Smith, the high school marching and concert band practiced diligently every Thursday and Friday morning during activities period. The hard work of the marching band was well rewarded when they won first prize in the annual Dallastown Hallowe'en Parade. At home football games, the band was quite a morale booster to the team and fans.

The Band's capacity as a concert band proved to be very delightful to both audience and students as they presented their annual concert at the "Night of Music" and also played in several Assemblies.

The band officers for the 1956-1957 school year were chosen as follows: president, Eugene Smith; vice-president, Dean Flinchbaugh, secretary-treasurer, Karen Leader; librarian, Richard Keeports, Donald Kohler, Ronald Smeltzer, Randall Strayer, Harlan Smeigh.

Oh, How They Can Harmonize . . .

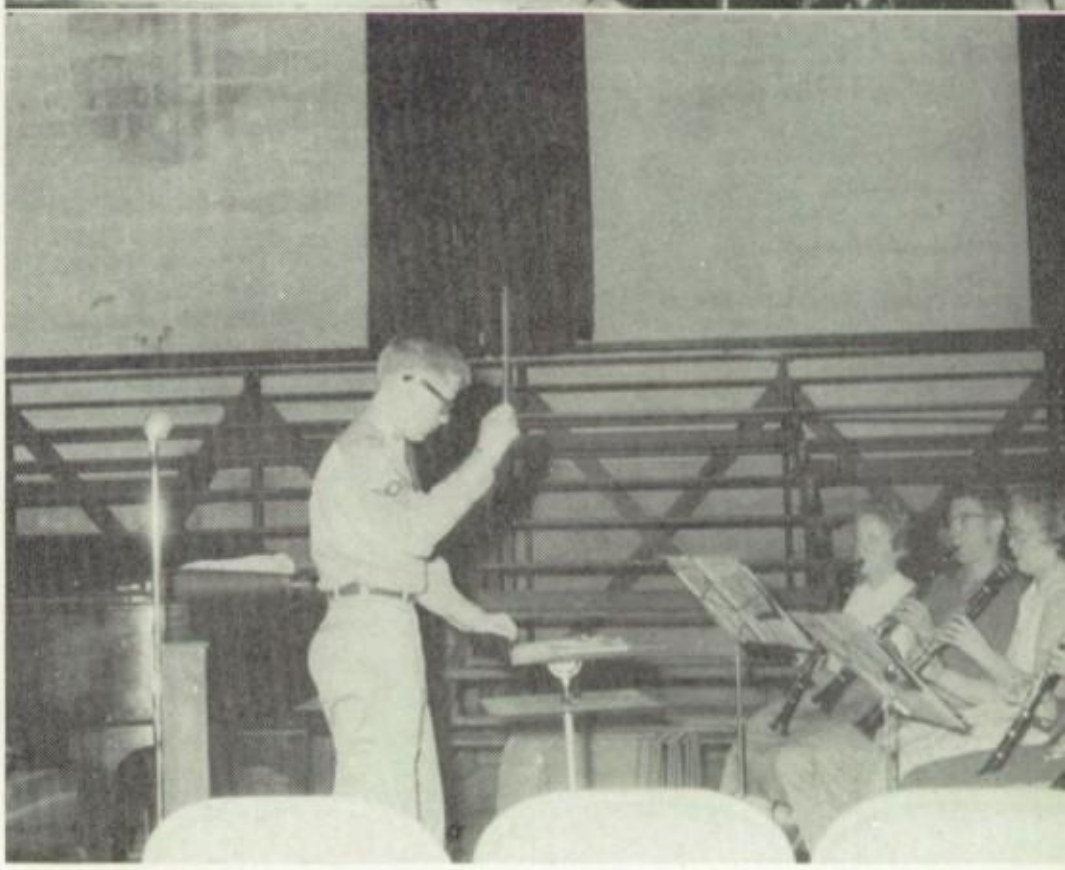
The Senior Chorus this year consisted of students from eleventh and twelfth grades. The chorus met the last period every Tuesday. This fine group of juniors and seniors, under the direction of Mr. Campanella, sang through their large repertoire trying to help Mr. Campanella select the numbers to be used in the "Night of Music."

The Senior Chorus is noted for their fine rendition of college level choral arrangements. And this year's chorus, backed by one of the strongest male sections in the history of the chorus, provided no exceptions to that honor. Carolyn Raab was president of the Senior Chorus. Bonnie Jean Fix, a splendid pianist, accompanied the chorus.

. . . When the Chorus Sings.

The members of the Junior Chorus rehearse their numbers for the Nite of Music.

The boys show everything is okay with their part in "Country Style."



Guest Conductor, James Flinchbaugh, directs the band at rehearsal.

The merger of two families was the plot of "A Ready Made Family" which you saw on November fifteenth or sixteenth at the Memorial Auditorium. The cast of ten was directed by Mrs. William Richardson.

A widow, Agnes Martyn, played by Karen Leader, and Henry Turner, a widower portrayed by Ralph Stahl, met on a vacation and became engaged. But neither mentioned to the other the fact that they had children.

With each family distrusting the other the plot began to thicken, but after two merry hours Agnes and Henry straightened out everything.

Adding to the merriment, were Agnes' son, Bob, played by Kent Sprenkle; the elder daughter, Marilee, portrayed by Nancy Grey; the younger daughter, Gracie, played by Faye Krout; and Miss Lydia, her sister-in-law, played by Connie Raab. Shiela Gemmill and Charles Snyder, as Doris and Sammie, played Henry's two children. And producing more humor in the roles of Begonia and Nicodemus, the colored maid and handyman, were Joyce Heindel and Eugene Hartman.

Dallastown

The Dallastown Area High School's baseball season consisted of a regular ten-game schedule in the Southern Division of the York County Scholastic Baseball League.

Dallastown emerged the only undefeated team in the Southern Division on April 25 by handing Susquehannock its first setback. Previously the Wildcats had scored a 4-1 win over Eastern and had defeated Red Lion's defending champions.

Dallastown High ended its scoring famine after 27 innings without a run, but dropped its fourth consecutive game, losing to Susquehannock by 10-6 on May 11. These defeats were handed the Wildcats by the Red Lion, Eastern, and Kennard Dale diamond teams.

Scoring in each of the first five innings, D.H.S. topped Lower Chanceford 9-4 on May 15.

A leaky Kennard Dale defense committed three errors to hand Dallastown the running run in the top of the ninth as the Wildcats took a 5-4 victory.

With six wins and four losses, Dallastown ended its baseball season in third place. Eastern captured the Southern Division title.

As you approached the Dallastown High School gym on the memorable night of May 18, 1956, you heard faint music played by Wilton Hutton's orchestra. Inside, you found the gym had been skillfully transformed into a pre-Civil War southern plantation scene, complete with pond, magnolia grove, veranda, trellises, and roses and lilacs. The white thrones of King Gary Keeney and Queen Barbara Shoff gleamed in all the southern splendor.

You could have danced all night but as the orchestra played Goodnight Sweetheart, you realized that another successful prom had become a sweet memory.

Mrs. Frits, the F.H.A. adviser, kept the girls well informed on the latest techniques of home-making.

In addition to the monthly club meetings, the girls also participated in many other activities. Maintaining the refreshment stand at the basketball games made the girls quite popular. Beside the county and sub-regional meetings, the girls also attended the Future Homemakers of America Workshops.

Forever We'll Be True . . .

Music by Maxine Heindel

The time has come when we must pause
To bid a fond adieu.
So teachers, friends, and classmates,
We say farewell to you.

Chorus:
Dear Dallastown High
Forever we'll be true.
Dear Dallastown High
We'll forever cherish you.

Our thanks to all for what you've done
To help us on our way.
With your kind help our goal is won
As we part from you this day.

All hail to thee, Dallastown High
Thee of the Blue and White.
We'll do our best to spread your fame,
Your honor, truth, and right.

Words by Faye Krout and Ralph Stahl

Our Best We'll Return Unto You . . .

Our tomorrows are only a vision.
Our yesterdays now but a dream.
Today is the day we've awaited
For a very long time, so it seems.

These years have been like a journey.
Full of adventures and struggles, too.
Year by year we have all grown richer,
With teachers and classmates, so true.

Now has come the hour of parting,
And as we say fondly adieu,
We promise, you dear Alma Mater,
Our best we'll return unto you.

Poem by Kent Sprenkle

Our History . . .

In 1955 we entered Dallastown High School as freshmen. We selected as our adviser, Mr. Riedel. Our class officers were : Marlene Fahs, president; Dane Loss, vice president; Betty Keeney, secretary; and Terry Knaper, treasurer. This first year made us realize that there would be both fun and work with student life at Dallastown High. A local hay ride and a trip to Hershey were the social functions that year. The trip to Hershey Park with the girls packing a picnic lunch climaxed our freshman year.

We began our sophomore year by electing as officers: Kent Sprenkle, president; John Emenheiser, secretary; and Terry Knaper, treasurer. Mr. Landis acted as our class adviser.

We found a great deal more to do and enjoyed school activities such as Beacon, Student Council, Chorus, and Band, and almost best of all, we constructed a paper mache football, which won first prize in the Homecoming Parade.

Our junior year was a busy one! We were kept in a tizzy with our play, "Cracked Nuts" and our "Plantation Ball" prom. Our officers were: Larry Wynn, president; Kent Sprenkle, vice president; Ralph Stahl, secretary; and Terry Knaper, treasurer. Mr. Landis again advised us. Several pupils brought honors to the class. Karen Leader won an award for designing and dressing a doll for the Seventeen Magazine. Shelby Douglas won a chemistry award. Carolyn Raab won first prize in the "Voice of Democracy" contest. We enjoyed our annual trip to Hershey.

As seniors we were always in a whirl with studies, Yearbook, Beacon, and signing pictures. Kent Sprenkle presided over our class with Ralph Stahl, vice president; Iva Romesberg, secretary, and Shelby Douglas, treasurer.

Nancy Gray served as editor-in-chief of the Beacon. Carolyn Raab acted as editor-in-chief of the Spectator and president of the student council. Mr. Winemiller was our class advisor.

Although we are seniors, now, we can reminisce about our years at Dallastown. We believe that our future will be richer for having been here.

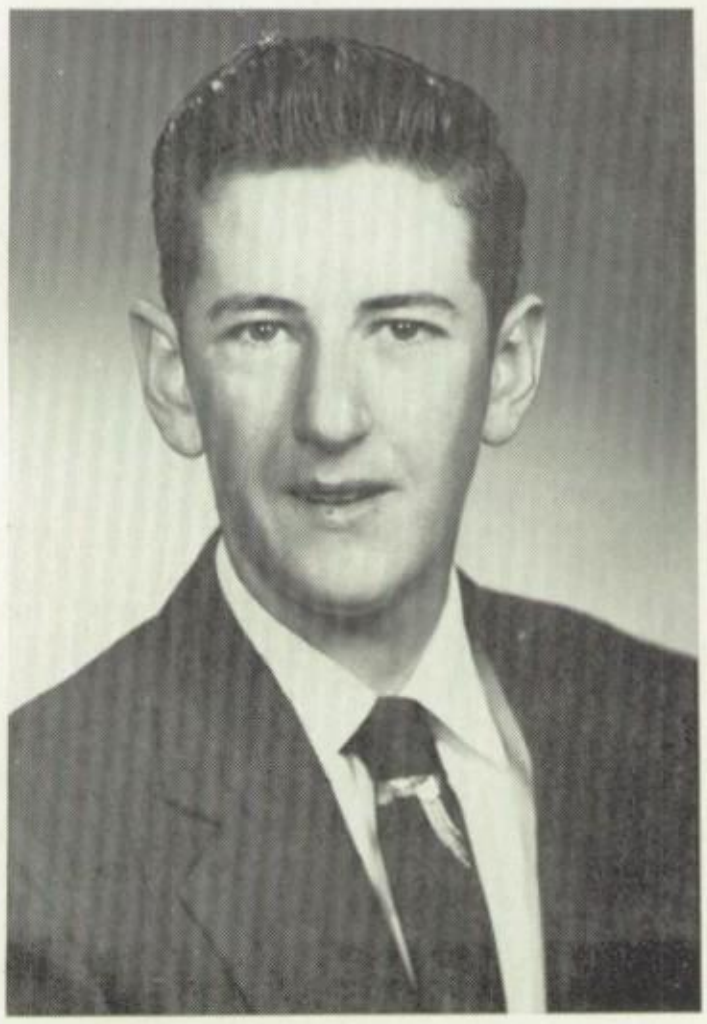
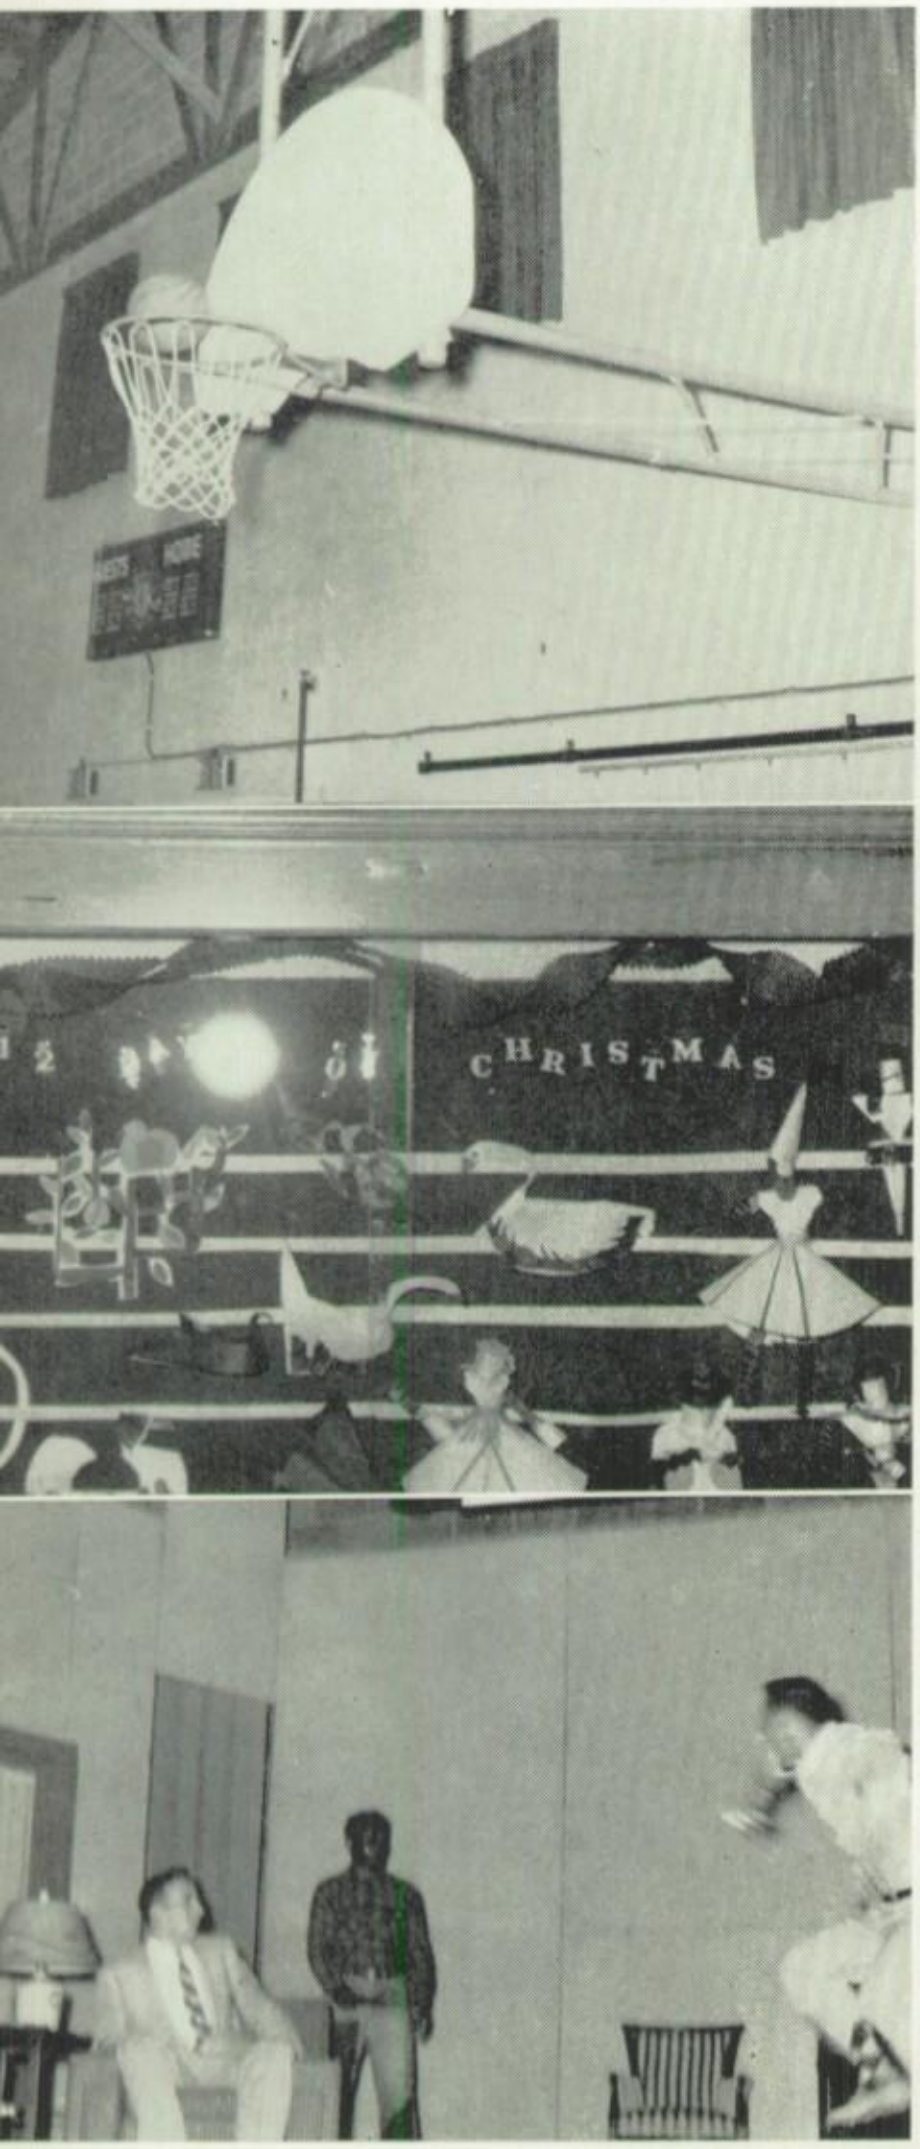
. . . Alma Mater

To Larry Lee Frey, born September 24, 1939



Larry died on March 4, 1957, from injuries received in an automobile accident. We believe that he has simply graduated to the great class of The Supreme Teacher above.

Do You Recall . . .



Those exciting basketball games?
The lovely Christmas decorations?
When Kent Sprenkle had a fit?

The fun at the Sock Hops?
The work on the biology projects?
The entertainment at the assemblies?

Our Thanks to . . .

The many individuals who have helped to make the 1957 Spectator a reality
. . . to all those members of the faculty
whose help and advice
have proved inestimable
. . . to our adviser,
Mrs. Ward, whose patience and consideration have guided us through the year
. . . to Mr. Henry Blatner for his fine photography and his lasting co-operation
. . . to the students of D. H. S., who have provided us with our story, and for whom
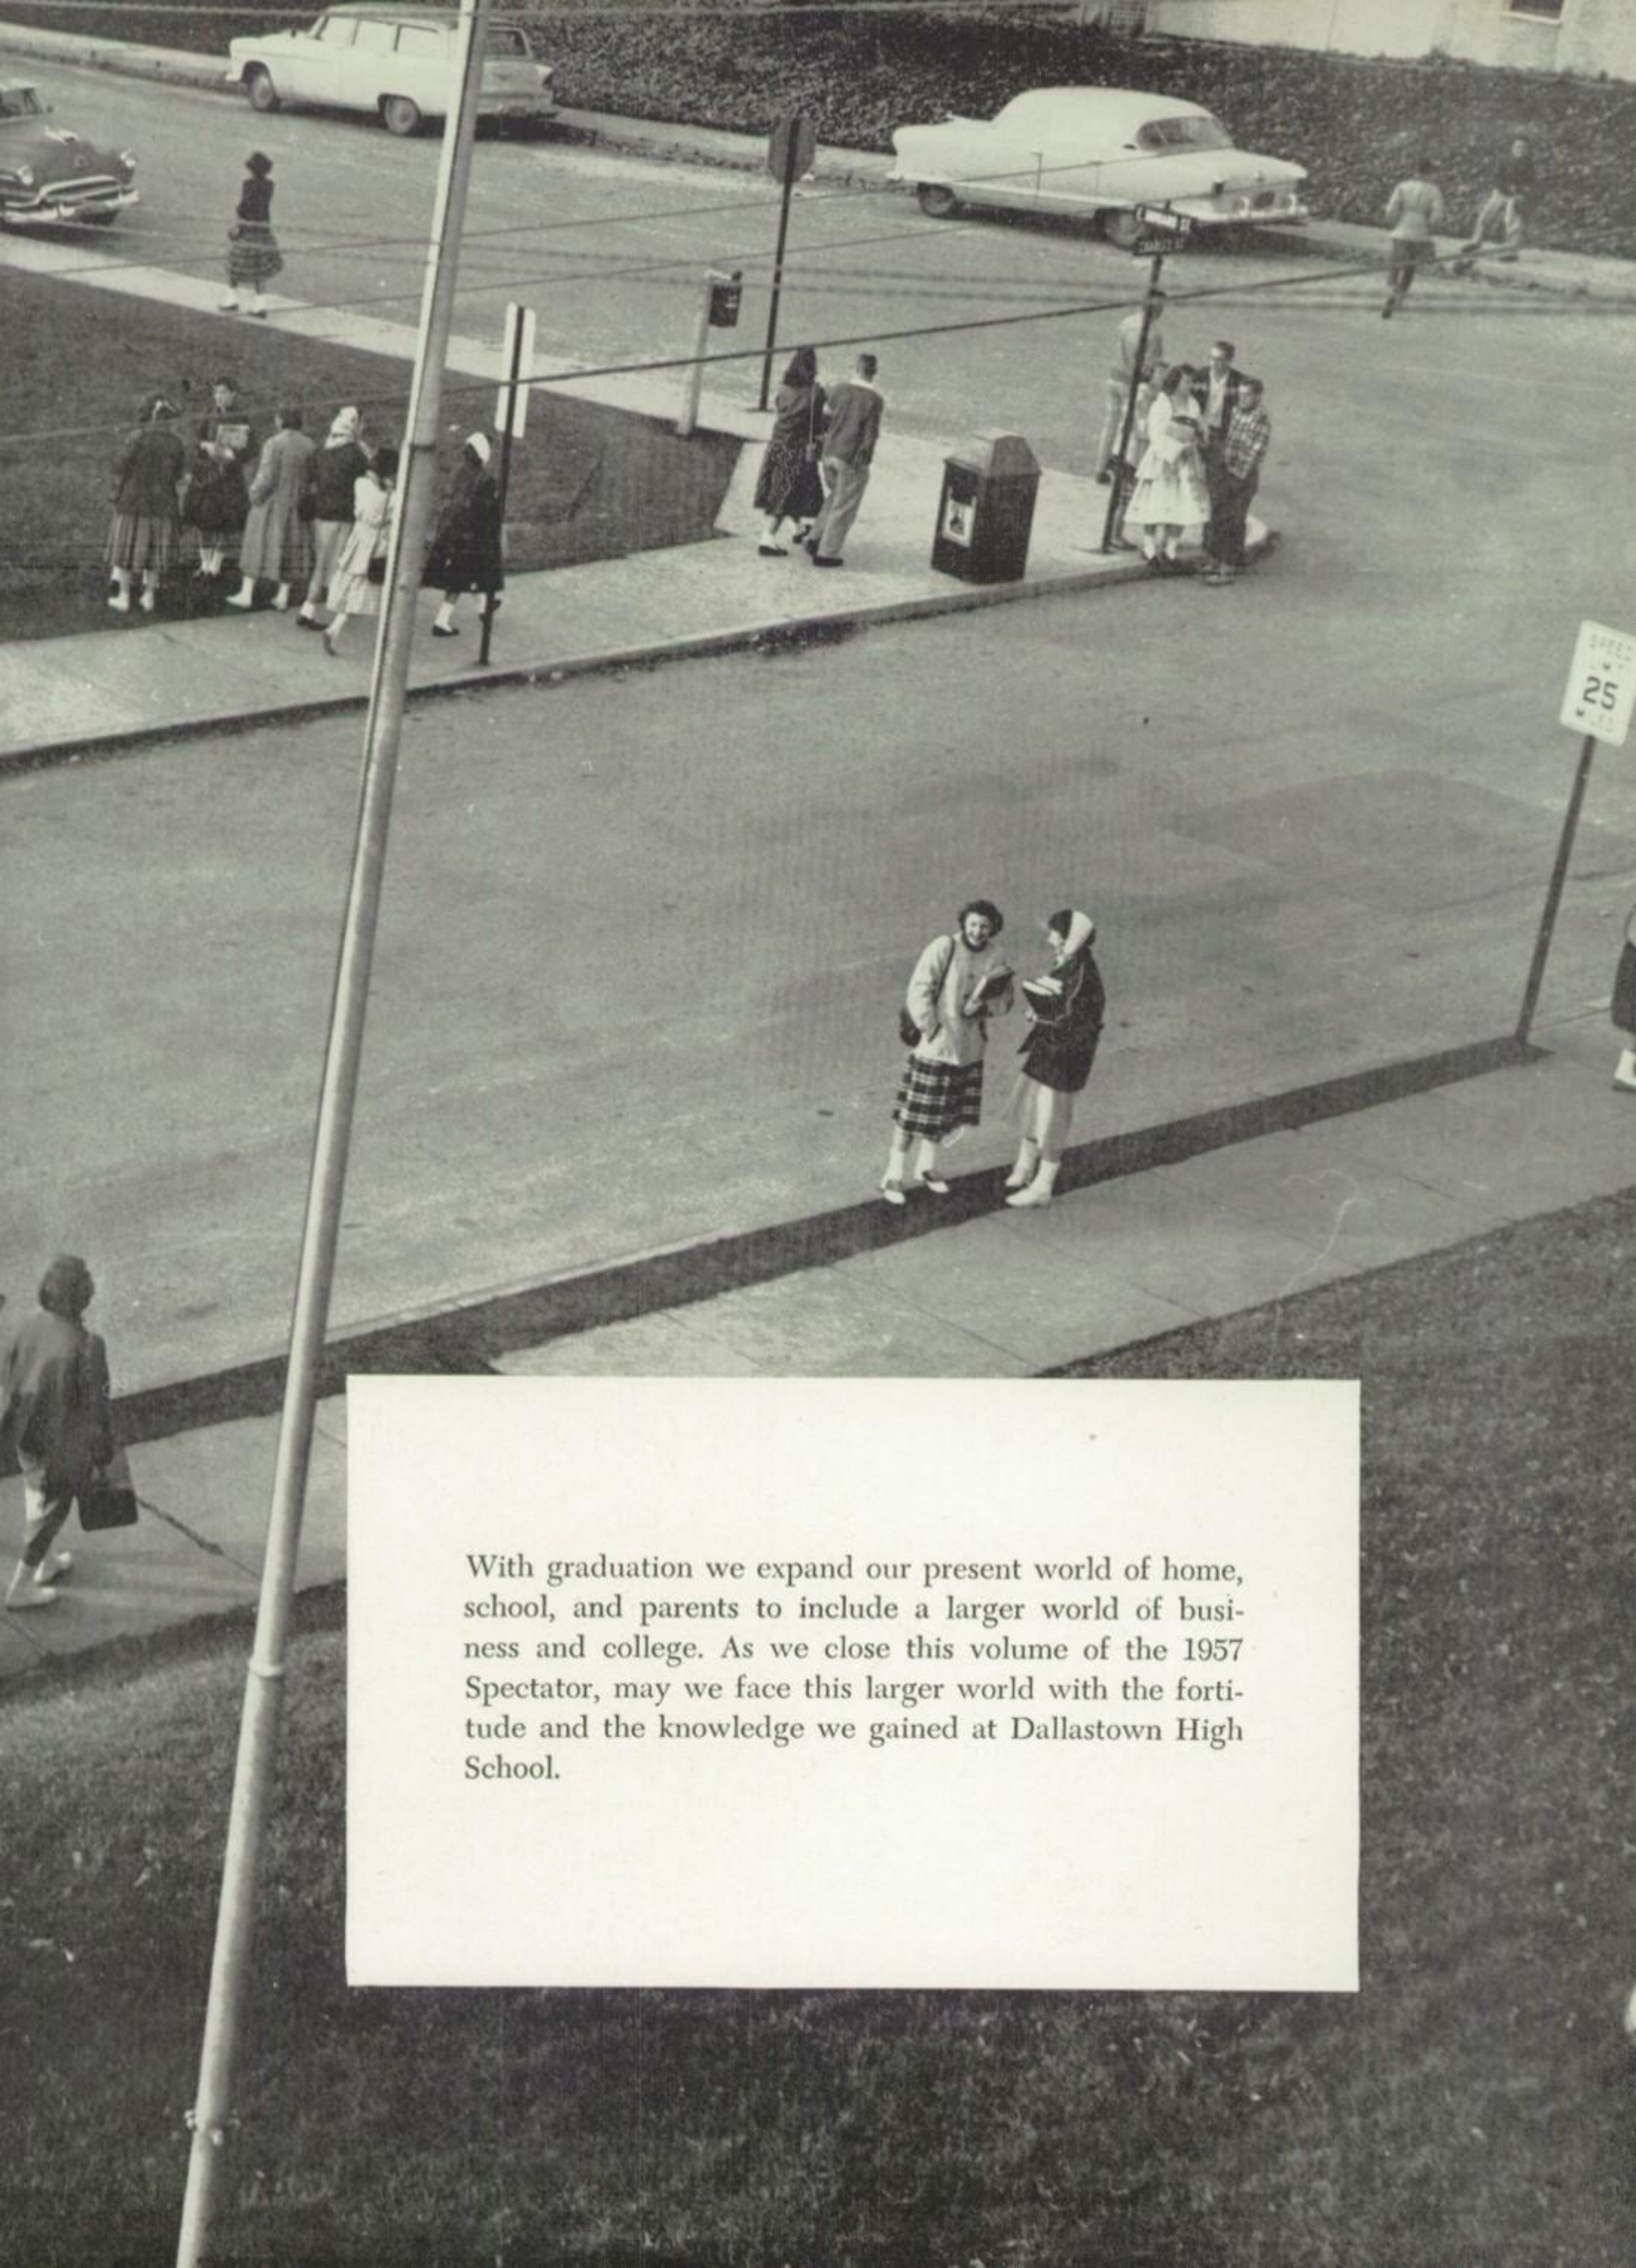
this book is written,
this staff wishes to express its sincere thanks.



With graduation we expand our present world of home, school, and parents to include a larger world of business and college. As we close this volume of the 1957 Spectator, may we face this larger world with the fortitude and the knowledge we gained at Dallastown High School.

An after game Sock Hop makes a hit with the crowd.
